Clean and Green Program (Swachh Bharat -2012)

October 23rd 2012

Objectives:

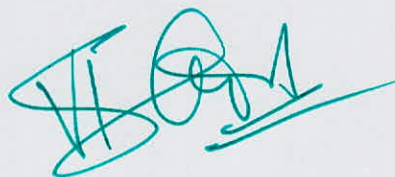

To ensure hygienic conditions across the city

To inculcate the habit of plantation

To ensure cleanliness in public places

Report of the Program

More than 40 NSS volunteers took part in the 'Clean and Green program' in the adopted village. MPTC, ZPTC and SARPANCH also took part in the program. All the class coordinators and volunteers cleaned the village roads and created awareness among the villagers about cleanliness. In the afternoon more than 250 saplings were planted both by students and villagers. Students prepared charts, placards and sang songs as a part of the program. Newly joined coordinators were told about the importance of NSS and its activities. The program was organized in the college premises as well. The NSS coordinators cleaned the staff rooms, labs, departments, class rooms and distributed plants to the faculty.

Brief Report on Bathukamma

Bathukamma is a floral festival celebrated by the Hindu women of Telangana. Every year this festival is celebrated as per Telugu version of Hindu calendar in the bhadrapada Amavasya, also known as Mahalaya Amavasya, usually in September- October. It comes during the latter half of monsoon, before the onset of winter. It is a symbol of Telangana's rich culture. The seasonal flowers showcase the beauty of Telangana's traditions. The most important of all the flowers are 'Gunugu povvulu' and 'Thangedu povvulu'. It is celebrated by the women of Telangana, to exhibit the magnificence of multiple flowers. The event was organized on 22nd September in Aurora's degree college(RTC building block 6). The event began at 9.am with the making of Bathukamma(floral arrangement) as a competition by the students of degree and pg. Betel leaves, fruits were distributed to all the women as 'Thambulam'. Everybody was dressed in traditional wear and took part in the event, folk songs were sung and they danced around the traditional bathukamma. The students even narrated the story about Bathukamma. In the evening the Bathukamma was immersed in tankbund as a part of tradition.
