DAY 2 :

Day 2 i.e. 22nd October 2021 began at 2:00Pm to 3:30 Pm, with prayer Song.

After the prayer, Dr. Shivhar Biradar has taken over the proceedings and called upon Heena R to introduce the speaker of the 3rd session of Day 2, Dr. J. Atmaram Assistant Professor, Dept. of Hindi, Hyderabad Central University, Hyderabad to speak on (Journalism in Hindi).

Dr. J. Atmaram Said Hindi language is not affection for anyone, it is expanding strongly. The speed of Hindi is expanding and increasing with a lightning speed. Very soon the expansion of Hindi will increase more than English (through Journalism in Hindi). Hindi became a sweet dialect. More than 80 crore people speak Hindi, and now it is on the third level and that day is not far away that it reaches the whole world. Social networking and literature are expanding simultaneously. In the modern era, Hindi Journalism and language is expanding very fast that is also being expanded through magazines. Such influential works enable increasing interest in the language and understanding of the language.

After the speech, Dr. Shivhar Biradar has put forth a token of thanks for enlightening the participants on the different stages in the development of Hindi Journalism and though the topic is vast, it was well presented in a nutshell.

After the vote of thanks given by Dr. Shivhar Biradar., Department of Languages, a photo session took place. After the photo session, the two day national faculty development programme came to an end, which was appreciated and well received by the participants.
